THE BATTLE OF LIFE.

Which is continually going on between health and disease, has never received from any Medicine such marked and unmistakable assistance, on the side of health, as it has from

BRISTOL'S SARSAPARILLA,

This powerful vegetable detergent has been fully tested in nearly every part of the civilised world. It has been tried in long-standing cases of

and has invariably been successful in curing them. It has been again and again tested in Fever and Ague, Intermittent and Remittent Fevers, and always with the same excellent results. In it is infallible, curing cases that had resisted al other treatment for nearly a lifetime, allaying every phase of inflammation, and leaving the joints in a natural condition. In it is a sovereign remedy—causing new circulation of the blood around the edges of the sore, are speedily filling up and drawing together the flesh; which in old sores is generally inert and ifeless. In the effect is truly wonderful. The scrofulous and depraved blood and humors on which such sores feed and live, are neutralized at the stomach, the fountain-head, and new and healthy blood soon washes away every vestige o disease. In the effect is equally gratifying, although, of course, it is necessary to persevere for some mouths in diseases such as those having their origin in bad blood and humors; and in such diseases as the Sarsaparilla should be continued for at leas four or five months after the trouble has to all appearance been overcome, because unless this is done, and the nature of the blood and humors be entirely changed throughout the whole body, the disease is liable to return with unabated force. In the Sarsaparilla should be taken five or six times a day, but not in very large doses—say two or three tablespoonfuls at a time. And in all of these diseases we strongly urge the use of Bristol's Sugar-coated Pills, in conjunction with the Sarsaparilla, taking two or three Pills every second night on retiring to rest. In this way cures will be more speedily effected.

It being an admitted fact, that "Money makes money," the object of LA BIENHECHORA could not be better, since it opens a vast Savings Bank for the surplus or savings of the Public, so that, by the proper employment of these small gains, a moderate capital, or even annuity, may be secured in a short time. By this means a provident, though helpless, family can husband their small means, and, in the end, attain a competency.

It being proved that the accumulation of interest is the most powerful means of augmenting the capital, THE BIENHECHORA DEL PLATA—an Argentine Company, whose only investments are in the country—holds out to Subscribers greater advantages than any other Institution, by reason of all its dealings being in the River Plate, where are current as large interests as in any part of the world.

CIRCULAR TO ARGENTINE CONSULS.

The Minister of Foreign Affairs has sent the following circular to the Argentine Consuls abroad and mentions that henceforth a monthly summary or statement will be regularly forwarded to them, giving an exact account of the progress of the Republic. The idea is a good one, and the circular is remarkable for the minuteness and ability with which it is drawn up, but we would suggest to the Minister to make the style more condensd if it is proposed to reproduce it in English papers. Brevity is the soul of wit.

Buenos Ayres, Feb. 28th.

Besides the official documents that we usually forward to Consuls, we shall henceforward send you every month a report of the moral and material progress of the Republic and the measures of the Government towards furthering the onward movement that now pervades every part of the country. This will enable you to render good service by informing the public, through the papers of your city, of the condition of the River Plate. You are well aware that the great advantages which this country offers to foreign settlers in the liberality of our institutions are not generally known in Europe. The Government, therefor, charges you to make known that any industrious man may here realize a fortune, that the riches and resources of our Provinces are undeveloped, that the soil is fertile and land for farming purposes within the reach of all, that peace is firmly established and public confidence becomes the forerunner of a great and glorious future.

The Paraguayan war is over, the allied arms having restored liberty to that country: a Provisional Government has been formed at Asuncion to reorganize affairs and throw open that Republic to freedom of commerce and institutions. Our National Guards after an arduous campaign of 4 years have returned to their homes, thus giving us fresh hands for our industries and saving the Exchequer from heavy outlay. The first care of Government has been to exempt the Nat. Guards from frontier service and send troops of the line to protect the vast plains of our Pampas now available for pasture and agriculture.

Peace being consolidated among us we have a steady influx of European immigrants who find immediate employment, and our industries are everywhere fomented by lines of railway and telegraph in all directions. The province of Buenos Ayres has several railroads which bring in produce from remote districts, and our telegraph wires keep us in constant communication with Montevideo and Rosario while other lines of telegraph are being laid down to Chile, Paraguay and Brazil, with the co-operation of the Government. The Central Argentine Railway is almost completed from Rosario to Cordova, a distance of 240 miles. In fact railways and telegraphs are the special care of Government, and when we compare our present condition with that of a few years ago, or even with our neighbours, the progress we have made is very remarkable.

It is our purpose that no part of the Republic shall be without telegraphic communication and we have concluded three contracts; one for a line from Cordova to Jujuy, passing through Tucuman and Salta; another from Rosario to the town of Paraná and thence to Corrientes, through various intermediate towns; a third from Paraná across the province of Entre Rios to the Uruguay.

A branch railway is to be laid down from Villa Maria to Rio Cuarto in the Province of Cordova; and before long the whole Republic will be a network of railways and telegraph wires. At the same time the various local interests of the provinces receive every attention from Government, and we intend by every means to foment immigration.

Meantime we do not confine ourselves to mere material progress, but give a preferent attention to popular education as the secret and safeguard of the advancement of a nation. Libraries, schools, colleges and universities are being established under a uniform system, and every town and province of the interior has felt the benefic action of Government in this particular. A census of the schools of the Republic will shortly be concluded, shewing the advancement of public instruction owing to the efforts of the National and Provincial authorities. At the same time we have established an Observatory at Cordova, a Mining school at Catamarca, a Normal school at Corrientes, another in Entre Rios, a College at Jujuy, 12 schools in Rioja, and in all the other provinces a number of public academies and night schools for children and adults. In a word the Government spares no pains to push forward the moral and material interests of every village town and city in the Republic.

The motto of our administration is "to populate and educate," and we hope by this means to raise the Republic in the eyes of the world. Our national wealth and resources are every-day multiplied around us, the public revenues increase in proportion, security for life and property are duly attended to, and the country has entered on a broad highway of progress under the shadow of peace, stability, and free institutions.

Still, the Government does not rest, but labors with undiminished zeal to strengthen the cause of law and order, to foster all useful enterprises, to spread far and wide the blessings of education, and to keep before the eyes of everyone that we are marching steadily onward to the aggrandizement and progress of the Argentine Republic.

MARIANO VARELA.

STOPPAGE OF THE TRAMWAYS.

Probably the most interesting feature of Carnival was the inauguration of the tramways. People forgot for a moment the comparsas' the masks, and the street promenades, to make an excursion in the first tramways ever run to the Plaza Once de Setiembre. The Calle Cangallo line, which seems to be well mounted and with a capital rolling stock, had three or four cars running each day of Carnival, and, as a matter of course, did a splendid traffic, although the cars only ran from the Mercado del Plata to the Plaza Once. The Cuyo line, which runs from Calle 25 de Mayo to the Plaza Once, only ran two cars, and yet carried two thousand passengers per day. The Cuyo line changed cars at Calle Callao, and the arrangements on both lines, considering the circumstances, were sufficiently satisfactory and creditable to the managers of the lines to justify the expectation that the cars would continue running, although some red tape impediments were still on the track. But the Government House people seem rarely to consult the public convenience; and to the surprise and astonishment of the whole neighborhood, on Wednesday morning there were no cars running. The running of the cars the three previous days had completely taken off the omnibus traffic; those antiquated conveyances had also stopped running; thus all communication between the Plaza Victoria and the Plaza Once was violently snapped, and brokers, wool buyers, wheat growers, farmers, and estancieros had either to hire a coach or walk the distance. An impromptu meeting of disappointed passengers was held in the Once, and one of the leaders of the affair mounted on the top of an old broken down bullock cart and addressed the meeting. He said:—Would-be fellow-passengers, I rise to address you, not on the truly melancholy state of affairs in this market to-day, but on the bullock-cart. Governor Castro, the most go-ahead governor since the days of Governor Brown, has stopped the tramways, and we are all sold: we all want to go into town, but we must walk. The busses have all stopped, the tramways are not allowed to run. I move that we proceed to the city in bullock-carts. Why laugh? I respect the old bullock-cart—emblem of things that were, yes, and things that are.—In the language of that distinguished Irishman, Constantine the Great, our Governor Castro can lay his hand upon this octogenarian bullock-cart where I stand and shout In hoc signo vinces. Yes, my good friends, Governor Castro is the man of the day, and the roaring of the wheels which we are told is calculated to drive on the bullocks, is your indignant shout in the market this Wednesday morning. Hear it not, Castro, for 'tis a knell, that summons you to the Once or to —— Where is Orion, that he is not here to tumble the governor, fiscal, and ministers out of the Government House bullock-cart by his fiery eloquence? Where are all the editors of the papers of this city? Where are they? I ask. Echo answers, fast asleep in their beds after last night's 'funcion', and we, poor d——ls, roasting alive here in this market square. Tax-payers to the Government, subscribers to the journals, worse still, readers of all the papers, are victimized and bamboozled and compelled to travel to town on shanks' mare. (Great cheers.) 'Donnerblitzen!' have things come to such a pass that the avenues of trade and commerce, the viaducts of business, the very highways of produce operations are all to be brought to a standstill, because Castro's bullock-cart has got on to the tramway track and won't move off!

Free and enlightened Once de Setiembre men—let us take the matter in our own hands, let us rush to the Government-house with this old ruined cart like a Gran Chaco avalanche, sweeping down everything in our way. Congress stopped all the diligences in the provinces, and played Sam Hill with the whole country; Castro now improves on it, and stops the tramways, when it was notorious all the best buyers were expected up in the first coaches. Stand forward Unzue, and tell the country how much wheat has fallen this morning in consequence of this mess. Speak up Michael Duggan, and in the mellifluous accents of Westmeath, tell the country how much the sheepfarmers have lost this morning by the non running of the tramways. Maize is down, wheat is down, wool is down; we are all down, save the Government-house people and the editors, who are just getting up. Fellow produce men, the Carnival is over; no more masks allowed; let us no longer use the mask of respect towards this old bullock cart, anti-tramway, anti-public-convenience administration; but let us speak our minds freely, we must have either tramways or bullock carts, and I move that if within 48 hours from now the tramways are not running, we start a line of bullock carts to ply up and down Calle Rivadavia, and that a report of this meeting be published in the STANDARD. This resolution was passed 'nem con' amidst the most boisterous acclamations. Meantime two of the buss drivers hearing what was going on, got their horses to, and drove down to the meeting, every seat was at once occupied, and thus the proceedings terminated.

DEATH OF DOCTOR WADE.

We have received from Capt. Johnson of the Pascal the following particulars about this very sad occurrence, which are as follows—

Dr. Henry Thomas Wade was about 40 years of age, and a graduate of Trinity College, Dublin: he was over a year and a half in the service of the Company, during which time he gained the esteem of everybody by his professional skill, gentlemanly bearing, sober habits and kindly disposition.

The Pascal arrived in port on the 18th and was ordered to anchor out in the river for 5 days quarantine, there being no sickness of any kind aboard. On the night of the 22nd Doctor Wade was conversing with some passengers on the quarter deck, in his usual health and spirits, up to about 1 o'clock, when they all retired to bed. At 20 minutes to 4 a.m. he was seen to come out of his cabin by two quarter-masters who were on watch; one of them spoke to him, saying "it is a fine night, sir," to which he replied "yes, a fine morning." It was a clear moonlight and the weather calm, the vessel rocking gently with the current. The doctor had only his trousers on. The quarter-masters happened to go forward for a moment and presently heard some noise aft, but on coming up they only heard some passengers talking down below and paid no heed, thinking perhaps some one had nightmare.

Next morning the term of quarantine expiring Capt. Johnson weighed anchor and came in close to the Guardship: it was about 8 o'clock when the Doctor and officer of the guardship came alongside the Pascal and asked to see the doctor of the ship. He was nowhere to be found, his room was empty, but his clothes and trinkets were in their usual place and his keys lying on the sofa. The ship was searched but they could not find him, and then the passengers testified that about half past 3 in the morning some of them heard a cry from the side of the ship which they supposed to be a boat coming alongside. Hereupon the port-officer ordered away all craft from alongside, including the provision boat; neither he nor the doctor went aboard, but ordered the vessel to keep up steam and cast anchor, saying they would return immediately: they did not return for 3 days, during which period the agents were running about between the Capitania, Government house, and Board of Health, trying to solve the difficulty.

Dr. Wade was neither given to drinking nor subject to fits, and the manner of his death was, as far as we can judge, purely accidental: it is probable that he went to stand for a moment on the ladder beside the ship, and a slight heave or roll of the vessel caused him to lose his balance. Unfortunately, as Captain Johnson informs us, he did not know how to swim, and was soon carried down by the stream; if he could have kept himself afloat a few minutes the quartermasters would have been able to throw him a rope. The sad accident was much deplored by the passengers, and will cause profound regret among the numerous friends of the deceased, Capt. Johnson speaks of him as a dear and valued friend, and says the occurrence is the saddest that he has experienced during his many years at sea.

The conduct of the authorities when they learned that the doctor was missing calls for severe censure. They were of course quite right in keeping the vessel still in quarantine and calling for an investigation, but they acted most inexplicably in obliging Captain Johnson to come to an anchor in shallow water and detaining the Pascal 3 days there, of which time she was 48 hours aground, with a valuable cargo of 1,700 tons aboard. The vessel was in such risk that Captain Johnson expected the authorities would without delay either order him to go back to his quarantine ground for some days longer, or else permit him to enter port and break bulk. Whatever precautions or enquiry were deemed necessary might have been carried out in less than 3 days, and yet the port officials left Captain Johnson all this time without any notification of what they intended to do with his vessel.

The Pascal was finally released on the 27th and the passengers were allowed to land, all of them being in excellent health.

We may mention, as respects Dr. Wade, that he was so much pleased with the River Plate that before leaving Buenos Ayres last time he expressed his intention of coming out to settle here and practise as a physician either in Buenos Ayres or Montevideo.

RICHARDSON'S GUIDE.

It rejoices us to be able to welcome another number of this invaluable publication. The appearance of this River Plate Bradshaw is indeed for the public in general a matter of high interest, particularly being the production of an author who is well and favorably known to us all. This most interesting and useful pamphlet is neatly printed, well got up, and should be in every man's pocket. It professes to be a guide of railways, steamers, and diligences, but the humility of the title page does not deprive the reader of a far higher, and if you will, more useful information. On the first page instead of an insipid time table, we find the American Eagle flying away with T. B. Coffin and Son, who all the world knows hang out at 81 Calle Esmeralda, and sell the cheapest American agricultural machinery in South America. Next come our friends Moore Punch and Tudor, with a peculiar list of beers, porters, brandies, cigars, wines, biscuits; also London French watches, pickles, sweets, &c. Mr. Alex. Fulton's successors, J. R. Murdock and Co, follow on the heels of Moore Punch and Tudor, in guiding the stranger to their drapery establishment in Calle Potosi. Then follows a page occupied by the author with a most interesting notice to the public, in which we read that the little book in question boasts of an edition of 6400 copies There is a certain ambiguity of expression and of geography in the following notice to which we call the attention of the author—"The guide has a circulation throughout the Republic, in Rosario, B. Oriental, and all the country towns of the Province of B. Ayres." Now, as regards Rosario, we suppose is meant the small town in Paraguay, where Gen. Camara has his rearguard; but the country towns of this province, how they got out of the Republic, is difficult to understand.

The almanack for the month of February, the stamp paper law and the Railway time tables fill the first eight pages: then comes the Government telegraph office, and the Post office notice for foreign mails. Abraham Robinson leads the stranger to 88 Parque, M. Downes to 54 Calle Mayo, Woodgate, Brothers to 42 San Martin and John P. Boyd & Co. to 56 same street where tickets at the most fluctuating rates can be had for the steamers to Europe. We find Green, Le Rossignol & Co., have in their hurry omitted the number of their office, but this is immaterial, everyone in town knows their office in the Palais de Justice. Next follow another description of steamboatmen, evidently small fry, since they only occupy a half a page each:—Sciuriano & Son; Matti & Piera, Juan José Mendez, Hernet, Risso, and winding up with our old friend Luis McLean. The stranger is now supposed to have given up Coffin, Moore, Punch & Tudor, Murdock, the Railways, Post office and steamboats. He takes to the diligences, here we have some rustic Turpin driving a stage coach at full speed through page No 19 of the Guide:—

I'm the finest guide that ever you'd see,
For I know every place in curiosity.

From Chascomus to the back of God speed! What a catalogue of post houses and country towns? The Guide would indeed increase its usefulness if it would but teach us the pronunciation of the Indian names down South. We note that our friend Boyd runs an outside car or a shanderadan from Jeppener to the Monte, rather a hard road to travel. But, hollo, what's this! Drabble Row. Bruchet's Buss, half price for children and brokers, $5 from the Plaza to Remate Hall, the tramways will soon stop all this.

A characteristically noisy notice of Watson's, at Belgrano, fills page 23. Here, indeed, there is room for comment. Watson, doubtless, can cook a beefsteak or serve up as good a dinner as can be had this side of the Line, but to indite an advertisement that will catch, not offend, the eye is as hard as to make good salad. Gracious goodness! what does the man mean by suppers illuminated by the moon?

"At a supper so comic—at such a repast,
Who'd not be a glutton and stick to the last?
Here Watson, more wine; let me sit while I'm able,
Till all my my companions sink under the table;
Then, with brandy and soda placed by my side,
Let me ponder and tell what I think of the guide."

Claraz and Tam, owners of the Hotel Europa, are equally unsuccessful, for, in enumerating the many advantages of the house, they say "a fine view of the port." Why, the very idea of sleeping in a room with a window looking out on the old Yi and other wrecks would make a man dyspeptic for a week. But enough, we can take our readers to no more hotels, shops, stores, etc. In recommending this well-edited little book as the strangers 'vade mecum,' we have only one observation to make: the title of the book is too long. Would it not be better to call the next number simply

Richardson's Guide.

Avoiding everything about railways; etc., since, in reality, the book has more about merchants, traders, brokers and hotel men, who want to push trade or gain a custom, than anything else. And this reminds us of the celebrated American hatter who, when starting in business put up the following sign:—

John Thomson,
Hatter,
Makes and sells hats for ready money,
(with the sign of a hat).

Thomson's first friend suggested that the word hatter was entirely superfluous, to which he readily agreeing it was struck out. The next remarked that it was unnecessary to mention that he required ready money for his hats, few persons wishing credit for an article of no more cost than a hat, or if they did, he might sometimes find it advisable to give it. These words were accordingly struck out, and the sign stood—

John Thomson makes and sells hats.

A third friend observed that, when a man looked to buy a hat, he did not care who made it; on which two more words were stricken out. On showing to another the sign thus abridged to

John Thomson sells hats,

He exclaimed, why, who the d——l will expect you to give them away! On which cogent criticism two more words were expunged, and nothing of the original sign was left but—

John Thomson,
(with the sign of a hat.)

Our much esteemed friend, the author of this invaluable little pamphlet, might with advantage imitate Mr. Thomson and economise his title. Call the book, for instance—

"Richardson."

(With the sign of Mr. Richardson guiding the public.)

LATEST FROM CHILE.

TELEGRAPH FROM VALPARAISO TO PANAMA.

The proposed loan of $4,000,000 for the purpose of building the Chilean and Talcahuano Railway is still under discussion. The republic, according to the desired arrangement, is to issue bonds for this amount, at a fair percentage, pledging the road and its earnings as guarantee.

For a long time it has been a favorite project in this country to construct a mixed land and submarine telegraph between the ports of Valparaiso and Panama, and M. Rivero Iofré, the Chilian Consul at Callao, has made a proposal to this government on the following basis:—The government lends its protection to the undertaking, giving the company free use of all the public lands it may require for building purposes, and conceding an annual subsidy, for the term of ten years, of $6,900; but if four years after the opening of the line to the public telegraphic communication between Panama and the United States shall not have been effected all pecuniary assistance will cease on the part of the government. Six years are given for the completion of the line, although it is hoped that two will be sufficient. The importance of the undertaking and the very moderate terms proposed by the company lead us to believe that Congress will approve of the scheme, and the line once laid down to Panama it is probable that it would be found advantageous to extend it to New York. At all events our dates would only be nine days old from the United States and Europe, whereas now they are nearly twenty.

The Araucanian Indians, about whom so much has been spoken and written, and whose valor and perseverance in resisting invasion have been the theme even of poets, have at last concluded that their lances are not equivalent to the improved firearms used by the Chilian troops, and in consequence a deputation from the tribes, and composed of the principal chiefs, has made its appearance in Santiago, accompanied by their missionary, Father Leonetti, to whom, in feed, belongs a large portion of the honor of the reconciliation. In the interview they held with the President, Quilahueque, the chief of the Caciques, opened the proceedings by stating that he had come to ask pardon for past offences, and that he desired in future to live in peace and friendship with the government. The President in reply said that although he was little desirous of making peace with the rebel Indians, he had, at the solicitation of the military commandants on the frontier, resolved to accept the propositions now submitted to him, but he wished them to understand very clearly that if they recommenced their depredations he should order the war to be carried on until they were all either subdued or exterminated. The other Caciques spoke in a friendly strain, and signified their desire that a treaty should be drawn up by which they could prove their good faith towards the government, and orders were accordingly given. The terms will be made very severe, the Indians being obliged to give up their arms and horses and to deliver up to the government the sons of their principal chiefs, who will be retained as hostages and educated at the public expense in Santiago.

The savages of Easter Island appear to be on the high road to civilisation. Some terrible malady has swept off a large number of them and the remainder have sent their German missionary to this port, begging that assistance may be sent to them, and promising, as a proof of their gratitude, to relinquish the bad practice they have hitherto indulged in of eating human flesh. It is probable that the government will take some measures towards relieving them.

The crops are remarkably good; there will be a large disposable surplus. The demand for agricultural machinery continues good—a demand that sprang into existence from the recent Agricultural Exposition in Santiago—thus proving that if Chileans can see the improvements in machinery they will be liberal purchasers of the articles.

Arrivals of vessels have been very numerous during several days past, and in consequence, the freight market is weak. We have on hand 15,500 tons disposable.

Charters for copper ore to Liverpool are effected at £2.

MONTEVIDEO.

Thursday,

The City of Rio is hourly expected with Baron Mauá on board; it is understood he will present a project for the redemption of the currency. D. Manuel Silva, manager of the Oriental Bank has sent in a project for monthly amortization of the present notes, the various banks being allowed to issue new notes of 20 cents to $2 up to an aggregate amount of two and a half millions, of which two-thirds would be reserved for the Oriental Bank: in this case the bank would increase its capital to $500,000, and amortize each month as much as the proceeds of the various rents and revenues given in security for the present currency.

The Villa del Salto brought down to-day $101,250 in specie for the River Plate Bank.

The Government has removed Sr. Alvarez, Consul general at Buenos Ayres, and appointed Mr. Charles Stewart in his stead.

Several daring robberies and burglaries have taken place these days; in one case the burglars broke open an iron safe and got considerable booty.

The Austrian corvette Dandolo saluted this evening, on arrival from Buenos Ayres, and the other war vessels replied.

An old lighterman named Bonavia was drowned yesterday while bathing at the Peña de Bagre.

The Emigration society are despatching another lot of agricultural families in waggons for Cerro Largo.

Messrs. Cuthbert and Drew have removed to 124 Piedras: Messrs. Delisle to 131 Sarandi: the Marseilles steamboat office to 26 Camaras.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

We received per Tycho Brahe from our Paris correspondent a very important item of intelligence, which has obtained no mention from any section of the press of France; even that of Paris seems to have been kept in the dark as regards an event that had it proved fatal would have probably changed the fate of nations, and would certainly have been adversely felt in each and all of the countries of Europe. Our correspondent, who has influential and reliable sources of information, writes. "The 1st of January 1870 nearly proved fatal to the Emperor Napoleon. You will find no mention of it in the French papers I send by this mail, for I have not seen any allusion to the matter in any journal of Paris. I have heard, however, from the best authority that from midnight of the 1st to eight o'clock on the morning of the 2nd of January, the Emperor was in a state of coma; his death was hourly expected. The Imperial family, and all officials whose interests are identical with those of the reigning sovereign were in great consternation, but every possible precaution was taken to conceal the danger from the public. Napoleon has now recovered."

We call attention to a circular issued from the Foreign office to Argentine Consular Agents abroad, a translation of which appears in another column. It is without doubt one of the most remarkable State papers ever published in this country, and well deserving a careful perusal.

We take the following paragraph from our late exchanges:—The Brazilian Minister of Marine has contracted for the construction of two steam dredges of the kind used in the Suez Canal, and for two steam lighters, to be used for the improvement of the port of Pernambuco. The same Minister also authorised Engineer Barrossa to contract in Europe for nine lighthouses for the coast of Brazil, to be placed at Parnnagua, Bahia, the bar of Parnahyba, Olinda. the bar of San Francisco, Espirito Santo, Cabedelo, Mocuripo, and the bar of Rio Grande del Norte.'

Senator Jose Joaquim Torres, the Liberal senator for the province of Minas Gereas, died in that province on the 20th December.

The order and decorum observed by the people during Carnival is still the theme of universal approval. We publish to-day a 'precis' of some excellent reflections of the Courrier de la Plata on the subject.

The Progreso Club gave another masked ball on Thursday night. The attendance was fashionable and numerous but did not equal in the latter respect, that on Sunday and Tuesday evenings. It is unnecessary to say that the arrangements of the Club were perfect.

Orion says that the Provincial Government has refused to accept the proffered resignation of Dn. J. Manuel Estrada Chief of the School Department.

The Club del Plata gives its second Carnival ball this evening.

We hear that next year we are to have an English 'Comparsa' turned out in the 'full fig.' of the Highlanders of "Caledonia stern and wild" with pipes kettledrums, etc. We may safely predict that the peculiar, yet, startling sound of the war pipes will astonish the natives, while the picturesque costume cannot fail to create a sensation amongst the fairer portion of them.

A Rio paper says that Lopez has sent his son Emiliano to Washington on a mission to President Grant, the chief object of which is to request the United States Government to send a resident Minister to Paraguay. This is the same young gentleman whom Mrs. Garcia treated so cavalierly at one of the official entertainments.

A startling piece of intelligence for pleasure seekers is announced in Montevideo. It is persistently stated by parties supposed to be well informed, that the authorities there are about to abolish Carnival. "To this favour we must come at last" here and there, but the pleasing recollections of the past week being still fresh in our memory, we feel tempted to plead for a few years grace for a time honoured custom that does no harm when properly observed, and is believed by many to be of advantage to the health and morale of the population of a great city.

Baron Mana is coming to Montevideo per the ss. City of Rio Janeiro, which is daily expected in that port.

A letter from General Vedia, Commander-in-Chief of the Argentine forces in Paraguay, dated 25th inst. brings the intelligence that Lopez has not, as was supposed, left Paraguayan territory, but is still at Cerro-Corá, near the Apa; his advanced scouts have been seen near Curumbá, where his foraging parties were at work. General Camara was seventy leagues from Concepcion with a cavalry force, all mounted on mules. Horses are, it appears, of no use for campaigning in those regions, being from some unknown cause peculiarly liable to fatal disease. It is clear that up to the date of General Vedia's letter no news of a reverse to the Brazilian arms had reached him.

The mole under construction at Corrientes will, it is said, be finished within a brief period and at once thrown open to the public.

A 'tropero' named Billoldo has been brutally murdered by some peons at a small village near Corrientes; the unfortunate man was first killed by blows of 'bolas,' and his throat was subsequently cut from ear to ear. The possession of a sum of money which he was known to have was the cause of this foul crime.

A meeting was called for last night at Hector Varela's of the leaders of the various 'comparsas,' with the view of making arrangements for the funeral obsequies of the Carnival which are to take place to-morrow.

We received yesterday from Capt. Manton of Colonia a sample of rope made in the Banda Oriental from the fibre of the 'tuna'. The article produced seems equal to the best hempen cord, and we understand a company is about being formed to manufacture it on a large scale; samples have been forwarded to the States by Captain Manton.

The Paraná is rising with such rapidity, that in some of the streets of Corrientes small boats have taken the place of the hackney carriages, and the boatmen do a roaring trade. People pay their afternoon visits and do their shopping in improvised gondolas; and water throwing ws, of course, 'á la mode' during Carnival.

We unintentionally omitted till today the duty of saluting our new colleague, the Eco d'Italia, to which we wish a long and prosperous career.

The Tribuna contradicted in its issue of yesterday the news given by a Cordova paper, of the murder of a priest in that province by the National Guards while on their way home.

Three prisoners escaped from the Cabildo on Tuesday afternoon; one of them was badly wounded, and recaptured by the alcaide, Sr. Gallo, who started in pursuit of the fugitives;—the remaining two got off, and no doubt thoroughly enjoyed the wind up of Carnival.

The winning numbers in the last drawing of the Moderna de Cordova Lottery were—58, 43, 57, 39, 8.

The new military school at Palermo of which our friend Colonel Czetz has been named commander, will be inaugurated on the 15th inst.

The Verdad says that the Government will not allow the tramways to resume running until the municipality have laid down the regulations that are to guide their traffic. Poor public! hasta cuando?

It is said that our talented colleague, Hector Varela, will be a candidate for the Governorship of the Province of Santa Fé at the next election.

The immigration returns for the month of February show the total arrivals of foreigners here during that period to be 2,849 souls. At the present moment there are on the way out 6 vessels with Basques, 4 from Havre, 4 from Bordeaux, 6 from Marseilles, and 3 from Cadiz.

An English farmer has recently arrived from Bahia Blanca quite disgusted at the supineness of the authorities in settling the land grants; with his capital lying in the London Bank for the last 12 months he is unable to find any one who will give the title deeds and receive the money. It would seem that the officials he has applied to are of the 'how not to do it' class; he leaves for Entre Rios, where we feel certain no 'red tape' will impede him.

Yesterday Mr. Edward Wilde underwent his general examination in the Medical School. As usual this favorite disciple of Esculapius gave proofs of rare intelligence and profound knowledge of his profession. When the examination was over, he was received with applause by a large circle of friends who had come to witness the ordeal, while the professors welcomed with beaming countenances a disciple who is destined to reflect great honour on them and the faculty to which they belong. His final examination will take place a few days hence when we shall give full particulars. The apothecaries examination will begin to-morrow and will continue throughout the present month.

Mr. Zimmermacher of 120 Calle Parque has imported a new kind of filter and water-cooler which is now adopted by the Prussian army and possesses many recommendations: it is cheap, portable, and perfect of its kind. The smaller sizes are very much like an oyster-tin, and cost 75$ each; the larger are after the shape of ordinary filters, made of porous clay which keeps the water very cool, and vary in price from 170 to 500$. The portable ones are very suitable for camp travellers or soldiers on the frontier, the filtering apparatus being of carbonized matter which we are informed will purify and sweeten even brackish water. The invention belongs to a Berlin manufacturer and the Prussian army in the campaign of Sadowa was provided with these filters, a small one for each officer and a large one for each company. In many parts of the camp where the water is brackish these filters would be very valuable, and for those of our citizens who use 'algibe' water we also recommend them.

The last mail brought advices of the death of Mr. Dacre, the purser of the Douro a few days after his arrival in England. Mr. Dacre was favorably known to many River Plate residents, and a universal favorite, and the news of his demise has been received with painful concern.

A LESSON FOR ALL.

(From the Courrier de la Plata).

The city of Buenos Ayres has just given a lesson to the authorities, a charming lesson, and one that can be received without shame. During the three days of Carnival the whole city, without appealing to the Provincial Government, the Municipality, or any of the powers that be, afforded to itself and others a spectacle hitherto without precedent in this country.

Where the money, lanterns, costumes, valuable horses, and elegant equipages came from we do not undertake to say.

The Municipality, a body that passes half its time in obtaining the necessary authorization to raise funds for meeting old deficits and the other half in creating new ones, may as well take the trouble of enquiring how the millions spent during the three days were raised.

The population of Buenos Ayres has been able to do this without the intervention of the Municipality, which on its side has been unable in a whole year to pave properly a single square.

The police had no duty to do, and on this occasion we have to congratulate them on the fact, as it proved to us to what extent this mass of inhabitants of all nationalities is possessed of the spirit of order, and how easily it would take the right path if wisely governed.

Carriages crossed and recrossed each other, and now and then a driver set the police rules at defiance, but the great majority found their way along without any interference on the part of the police, and complied with the official rules which by the way were not too clear in their terms and were not made sufficiently public.

We may thus safely assert that any wise dispositions made by the authorities will be obeyed with punctuality and intelligence by the people they rule.

Buenos Ayres is a well-intentioned city, and those who do not recognise its supremacy are really very culpable.

The Chief of Police in 'mufti' went about on horseback through this amenable crowd, and appeared astonished to find his good city so composed in its mirth, and so satisfied at having proved to itself (for the first time) that it is capable of action without official help.

Mr. O'Gorman, on several occasions, was obliged to remind the crowd of the police regulations. This was done with such exquisite politeness that his wishes were obeyed without a word of remonstrance. His subordinates, so rude in speech, so prompt to act, should find a lesson in this fact. These facts cannot be allowed to pass without the attention of all being called to them. The people resolve to amuse themselves; they take the necessary steps, and for three days give themselves up to enjoyment without its being necessary to have a single patrol or uniform representing authority on the scene.

We cannot too often repeat that this is a great fact that shows what may be expected from the wisdom of a population.

We frankly confess that in Mr. O'Gorman's place we would not have hazarded the experiment, and we congratulate him on his confidence in the good sense of the public and the orderly spirit of the inhabitants.

The Carnival of 1870 affords a lesson to many, and we would be at fault did we forget the 'recalcitrants.' Wherever the streets were decorated the shopkeepers did a fine business, on the contrary, where there were no decorations those who refused to sow did not reap.

To sum up, everyone had his deserts, and all enjoyed the fine weather. The Carnival of 1870 represents the first step of the Argentine people towards liberty and self-action.

It is the first time it has acted as a people without being led by a buffoon or a doctor; it is the first time it has ventured to break loose from official apron strings; it is the first time it has felt strong enough to dispense with bayonets or policemen; it is the first time that we have had no strangers in Buenos Ayres, and that all flags have been blended into one.

All this signifies something, and that something is evidently progress.

ON 'CHANGE.

	March 4, 1870.
Ounces	400
Sovereigns	122½
Patacones	25
National Bonds	65½

The Bond market ruled a shade flatter to-day; there were no cash sales whatever. For Saturday 20,000 at 65½; for March 31, 73,000 at 66¾, closing at 66. Some of the minor bulls were taken by surprise by the attitude of the market to-day, and found it difficult to know to what to attribute the present weakness; but those better acquainted with the workings of the market see, in the case with which the Bond King lets go, whenever an opportunity offers, a desire on his part to realize as quickly as possible. The Bond King holds at present two millions of Bonds, which may be said to be completely off the market. Buyers at 65 last week for the end of March sold to-day at a slight profit, anxious to secure one per cent at least; but all these transactions are insighificant—the market is at the will of one sole holder, who rules quotations.

Exchange on England was done to-day at 50½; not much as yet passed, but the quotation to-day establishes an opening rate, both for the Tycho Brahe mails and the English packet.

The barque Mary and Louise, St. Mary's, for Montevideo, December 27, and which put into Bermuda, was consigned to T. B. Coffin, Sons & Co. of this city, had to throw over part of her cargo, pine, and has been condemned, another vessel having been chartered for the balance of cargo and voyage.

There has been something done in tramway shares; a Chilian gentleman bought some 70 shares to-day; it is supposed in the Cayo line.

Real estate.—Dwelling house, six rooms, 8x68, Calle Corrientes, between Garantias and Callao, for 135,000 m|c. Mr. Thompson, broker, purchaser.

Mr. Altgelt, the well-known broker, has joined the firm of Pasta and Co.

In the wool market to-day there was good animation—prices firm, and active sales; wheat has declined to-day, and a good deal was sent to deposit. The market rules weak. The following were the wool sales in the Once:—

M Duggan	4000	50 55
S Unzue	4000	50 52
Huergo & Rodriguez	800	48
J Sommariva	800	48
Quesada hnos.	500	46
Luis M Sole	800	45
A Sivori	1000	48

Wheat down, prices low.

The Tycho Brahe's mails bring the following advices:—

The wool merchants' committee have decided to postpone the sales till the 7th February, owing to the smallness of the quantities arrived to date, arising from adverse winds.—'Daily News.'

The advices from New York mention the ailure of Messrs. Debost Brothers, importers of millinery, with liabilities for about £50,000. The firm is stated to have been long in embarassment. The stoppage has also been reported of Messrs. George Underhill and Co., importers of woollen goods, from disastrous individual speculations of one of the partners.—'Times City Article.'

The following decision in the English Courts may interest our commercial readers:—

The decision of Vice-Chancellor Malins in the case of Lambert v. the Northern Railway of Buenos Ayres brings out a new difficulty between shareholders and directors. Nothing is more common; when a company gets into difficulties, than a promise to curtail the directors' salaries; but according to the present decision there is nothing to keep directors from retracting the promise when the storm has blown past, and getting things arranged differently at the meetings. The plaintiff's allegation in the present case was that the directors had agreed to give up their remuneration fixed at £1,000 a-year until the company paid five per cent.; and afterwards at a meeting "certain friends of the directors put a resolution which was carried without his being heard for a certain remuneration to the directors, on the foundation of the improved condition of the company." By this he alleged his interests as a preference shareholder had been damaged. But the Vice-Chancellor allowed a demurrer to the effect that the agreement was a mere nudum pactum, and a matter of internal management, and could not therefore be enforced. The subsequent resolution to pay the directors was also intra vires.

The steamer City of Rio Janeyro is now overdue. She will bring dates from Falmouth to the 3rd, and Baron Maua was expected by her, but owing to the quarantine regulations it is not probable H. E. will come in her.

The Montevidean Government has recalled Mr. Maximo Alvarez, Oriental Consul-General to this Republic, and named as his successor Mr. Charles Stuart.

The steamer Talisman, from London and Havre, arrived at Montevideo yesterday with a large cargo.

The Bordeaux ship Johana, that went aground entering the river, has been got off, and arrived in Montevideo.

Respecting the news from the United States, published in this day's paper, an American merchant has favored us with the following:—

The House Committee on Foreign Relations had some talk on Paraguayan matters, but did not complete their action on the report drawn up by Mr. Orth. They have got an immense mass of testimony that never will be read, if printed, and it is not probable that either branch of Congress cares two straws for the matters involved.—Boston Advertizer, Jan. 21, 1870.

DEFEATED AT ALL POINTS—Dyspepsia may be defined as a disease pronounced unconquerable by generalizing theorists, but which Bristol's Sugar-coated Pills always conquer. This is bad for the theorists, but intensely satisfactory to the dysptic. The mode in which the cure is effected is simple. Three organs are involver in the disease—the stomach, the heart and the bowels. The pills act in many ways. They strengthen, cleanse, they regulate—imparting vigor to the digestive functions, activity to the discharging function, and regularity to all three. Their effect is the same in all cases, and they are adapted to all constitutions and climates. In chronic dyspepsia and liver disease the blood is vitiated. In such cases Bristol's Sarsaparilla is a never failing remedy.

SAVINGS BANK
BANK MAUA AND Co.
101--Cangallo--103
BUENOS AYRES.

The immense advantages of Accounts Current we now so generally felt and appreciated in the two great emporiums of the River Plate, Montevideo and Buenos Ayres, that there are very few Merchants who fail to keep one at the bank in which they place the most confidence.

The Bank of Mauá & Co. in Montevideo has already provided for the working classes in that city a safe and profitable depositary for their savings.

The sums deposited in that very important institution are daily increasing, and already reach a very large amount.

These advantages have not hitherto been enjoyed in this city by an immense number of clerks artisans, working men, and servants of all classes and conditions, who are equally interested in putting their savings out at interest, thus providing themselves with a reserve fund in case of need, sickness, or old age, instead of spending them in the immoral gambling, in lotteries, and other frivolities.

The Bank of Mauá & Co. of this city, following the noble example of their firm in Montevideo, now offer the same facilities in this city, and has opened a Savings Bank at No. 103 Calle Cangallo from Nine a.m. till Three p.m. every day, for the reception of the savings of the classes already mentioned. Sundays an holidays excepted.

The Bank will deliver to each depositors a pass book, in which will be entered the amount deposited and withdrawn.

The depositor is permitted at any time to withdraw the whole or part of the sum deposited; in the former case the interes will be calculated up to date.

The Bank of Mauá & Co. is sufficiently known to the Public by the benefit derived from the course of its operations, which are regulated on the strictest and soundest principles, and always directed to promote the general welfare.

The Bank of Mauá & Co. are also persuaded that this new branch of their business will render immense service to the working classes of Buenos Ayres and its neighborhood.

Buenos Ayres, 2nd January, 1867.

P. P. Mauá & Co.,

M. A. DE FREITAS AMORIM.

CONDITIONS.

First—The Bank receives at interest any sum from Twenty-five Dollars currency or one Silver Dollar upwards.

Second—The interest allowed is six per cent. (6 p. %) per annum, which is liquidated every six months.

Third—The depositors can at any time retire the whole or part of the money deposited.

Fourth—Once the money deposited exceeds twenty-five thousand dollars currency, or one thousand dollars silver, the depositor, if he wishes can open an account current, according to the rules established by the Bank.

Fifth—In case the depositor loses his pass book it can be replaced by another on paying twelve dollars currency, and advertising the loss in the public newspapers.

DISSOLVING VIEW APPARATUS, WITH
KALEIDOSCOPE ATTACHMENT AND LANTERN MICROSCOPE, FOR SALE.

These Instruments are FIRST-CLASS, having been made to order, with elegant mahogany bodies, lined with metal, with rack adjustments, and clock-work to move the lines. They are from the well-known Establishment of Newton and Co., Opticians to her Majesty, London, and are arranged to work with either the Ox-calcyum or Ox-hydrogen Light, and with the latter arrangement are capable of throwing upon the screw a clear picture thirty feet in diameter.

In connexion with this Apparatus and its accessories, there are about 300 Views, &c., selected personally by the subscriber during his visit to England and the United States—enough, altogether, to make up twelve entirely different Exhibitions, consisting of one sett of Astronomical Diagrams, made by Barnard and Son the same as those exhibited in Professar Pepper's Lectures at the Polytechnic, London.

Gustave Dorés Illustration's of Dante's Inferno, which elicited from the Emperor of the French an autograph complimentary letter to the Artist, photographed and colored, by Langenhe, of Philadelphia.

Illustrations of Memorable Events, described in the Bible—Natural Phenomena, Views in the Holy Land, England, Italy, France, Spain, Switzerland, United States, including those of Niagara, by O. H. Willard, of Philadelphia, which excited such immense admiration at the last Annual Meeting in Boston, of the United States National Photographic Association. Views in the Artic Regions, Statuary, moving Shipping, the Mill, Cruickshank's Bottle, &c. A great vatiety of Comic, Amusing, Instructive, and other moving slides and comotropes. A good assortment of Brushes, and the new transparent slides. Specimens for the Microscopo Lantern, &c., properly assorted and beautifully and delicately colored, together with numerous publications relating to the business, and a programme which will enable several active and intelligent persons to make their fortunes in the Towns of the River Plate.

The Magic Lantern in its rude state, in former times, in the hands of wizards and necromancers, served no better purpose than to induce a belief in their possession of supernatural powers, now occupies a deservedly high position as a scientific instrument, capable of affording rational amusement and instruction to the young as well as children of a larger growth.

In England and the United States this improved and marvellous contrivance has not only become one of the popular amusements, but is also extensively used for educational purposes.

During an evening's entertainment, assisted by Photography, an audience may be carried in imagination through many distant countries and places, viewing scenes and objects as they exist, leading the spectator to believe that he is looking upon the reality itself than upon a picture.

This Apparatus is recommended to Professors of Colleges and Public Institutions of Learning, to enable them to illustrate their Lectures in the most interesting and attractive manner.

For further particulars address G. B. Zieber, Calle 33, No. 170 Montevideo.

ENGLISH CROSS-BRED RAMS.

Messrs. GIBSON, BROTHERS,

Of "Los Ingleses," Port and Partido of Ajo, Beg to call the attention of Sheepfarmers to their Cross-bred Rams now on Sale there.

The advantages of this Breed are to increase the length of the staple and value of the wool, the size of the carcase, and the hardness of the sheep, including greater freedom from foot rot, to which the Rambouillet breed is so subject.

The Messrs. Gibson have been crossing their Flocks for the last twelve years with some of the best English long-woolled sheep, having imported during this time Romney Marsh (a Kentish Sheep), Cotswold, Lincoln, Leicester, and Cheviot Cross, pure Cheviot and Shropshire Down Rams.

From these they now offer for Sale Cross Rams from superior Mestiza and Rambouillet Cross Ewes.

In addition to the advantages of the Breed above enumerated, they would draw attention to the fattening properties of the 'cross' an object of great importance at present, when, owing to the low price of all wool, it is necessary to breed for fat as well as wool. As a proof of the value of the breed in producing fat, they have known instances of capones yielding upwards of 50 lbs. of raw grease and tallow.

From the long time that Messrs. Gibson have been engaged in crossing their flocks with English-bred Rams, it will be evident that nowhere can Sheep Farmers expect to find Cross-bred Rams, with so much English blood, as those they now offer for sale.

For further information apply to Mr. John Smith, 23 Calle Solis, where fleeces of the Cross Wool may be seen. 222,1m,jan25

HEALTH! BEAUTY!!
STRONG, PURE AND RICH BLOOD.
INCREASE OF FLESH AND WEIGHT
CLEAR SKIN AND BEAUTIFUL COMPLEXION SECURED TO ALL.
THROUGH
SARSAPARILLIAN RESOLVENT

Every drop of the Sarsaparilian Resolvent communicates through the blood, Sweat, Urine, and other fluids and juices of the system, the vigour of life, for it repairs the waste of the body with new and sound material. Scrofula, Consumption, Syphilis, diseases, and Skin diseases, whether inherited, contracted, or arising from bad habits of living, Impurities of the Blood, Ulcerous discharges from the Ears, and the worst forms of Skin Diseases, Eruptions, Fever Sores, Scald Head, Ring Worm, Salt Rheum, Erysipelas, Acne, Black Spots, Worms in the Flesh, Tumors, Cancers in the Womb, and all Weakening and Painful Discharges, Night Sweats, Loss of Sperm and all wastes of the Life Principle, are within the curate range of this wonder of Modern Chemistry, and a few day's use will prove to any person using it for either of these forms of disease, its potent power to cure them. If the patient, daily becoming reduced by the wastes and decomposition that is continually progressing, succeeds in arresting these waste, and repairs the same with new material made from healthy blood, and this the Sarsaparillian will, and does secure, a cure is certain, for when once this remedy commences its work of purification, and it succeeds in diminishing the loss of wastes, its repairs will be rapid, and every day the patient will feel himself growing better and stronger, the food digesting better, appetite improving, the flesh and weight increasing.

Not only does the SARSAPARILLAN RESOLVENT excel a known remedial agent in the cure of Chronic, Scrofulous Constitutional, Skin and Syphilitic diseases, but it is the only positive cure for Kidney, Bladder, Urinary and Womb disease. Gravel, Diabetes, Dropsy, Stoppage of Water, Incontinence of Urine, Bright's disease, Albuminaria and in all cases where there are brick dust deposits, or the water is thick, cloudy, mixed with substances like the white of an egg or threads like white silk, or there is a mortid, dark, billious appearance, and a white bone dust deposits, and when there is prickling, burning sensation when passing water, and pains in the Small of the Back, and in the loins.

In all these conditions Radway's Sarsaparillan Resolvent, aided by the applications of Radway's Ready Relief to the Spine and Small of the Back, and the Bowels regulated with one or two RADWAY'S REGULATING PILLS per day will soon make a complete cure, and in a few days the patient will be enabled to hold and discharge his water naturally without pain, and the Urine will be restored to its natural clear, and amber or cherry color.

Sold by Druggists everywhere.

Radway's Ready Relief,
THE CHEAPEST AND BEST MEDICINE FOR FAMILY USE IN THE WORLD.

One bottle will cure more complaints and prevent the system against sudden attacks of Epidemics and contagious diseases, than one hundred dollars expended in other medicines or medical attendance.

The moment RADWAY'S READY RELIEF is applied externally—or taken internally, according to directions—Pain from whatever cause, ceases to exist.

IMPORTANT.

Miners, Farmers and others residing in sparsely settled districts, where it is difficult to secure the services of a physician, RADWAY'S READY RELIEF is invaluable. It can be used with positive assurance of doing good in all cases where pain or discomfort is experienced, or if seized with Influenza, Diphtheria, Sore Throat, Bad Cough, Hoarseness, Bilious Colic, Inflammation of the Bowels, Stomach, Lungs, Liver, Kidneys, or with Croup, Quinsy, Fever and Ague; or with Neural
